

Chief Medical Officer Letter to Adults with Down's syndrome in Scotland – Easy Read version

What is this easy read about?

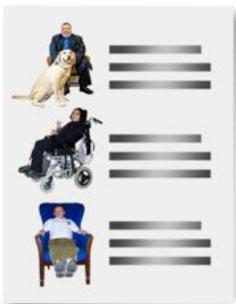

This is a letter from the Chief Medical Officer of Scotland Dr Gregor Smith

The letter is being sent to every adult with Down's Syndrome in Scotland

This means every person with Down's Syndrome who is 18 years old or older

It means you have been added to something called the shielding list

It does not mean that you need to start shielding

What is the shielding list?

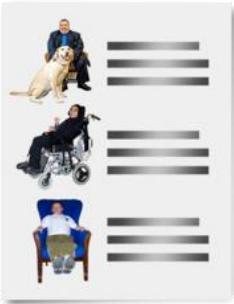

At the beginning of the coronavirus pandemic some people were shielding

Shielding was there to protect people who are likely to become very ill from Coronavirus.

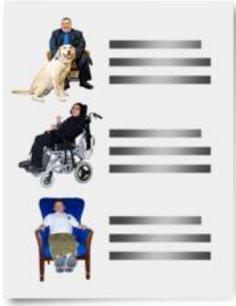

Shielding meant doing extra things to stay safe like staying at home at all times

There is now something called the shielding list

Being on the shielding list does not mean that you have to stay at home all the time

Being on the shielding list means you will get extra advice and support

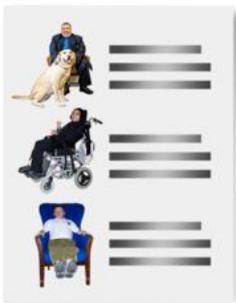

Why am I on the shielding list?

Experts have been doing research on who has become very ill from coronavirus

Their research says that people with Down's syndrome are more likely to become very ill

This is why people with Down's syndrome are now on the shielding list

What should I do now?

You do not have to start shielding or following different rules

You should follow the rules in your local area

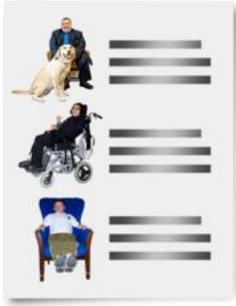

You can find out the local rules in your area at www.gov.scot/coronavirus

The new local rules will start on November 2nd

Being on the shielding list gives you extra advice and support.

Like advice and support for shopping

Like advice and support on seeing other people

The Scottish Government will soon send you some information to help you make a personal plan

You can speak to friends and family about what to do

You can speak to your doctor

If you do not want to be on the shielding list you can ask your GP to take you off the list

It is important to think about things and make the right decision for you

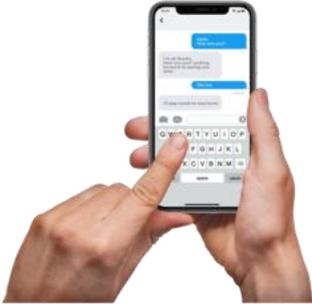

Would you like text messages with information?

The Scottish Government can send you text messages to your phone

The text messages will have new information and changes

If you would like to get them text the red number on your letter to 07860 064525

How else can I get information?

The Scottish Government will tell you if you need to start shielding

You can find the latest information at this website:

www.mygov.scot/shielding

You can watch the daily briefings from the First Minister

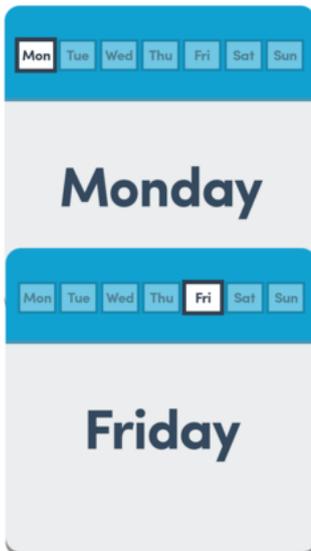

You can phone the Down's Syndrome Scotland helpline for more information and support

The number to call Down's Syndrome Scotland and speak to someone is 0300 030 2121

It is open between 8am and 8pm between Monday and Friday

What about the FACTS advice?

The Scottish Government want you to remember the FACTS advice

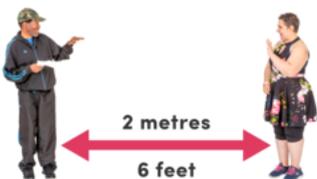

Wear a face covering

Avoid crowded places

Clean and wash your hands as often as you can

Stay 2 metres away from people

Self-isolate and stay at home if you get symptoms

What about the NHS?

The NHS is still open to help you

You should still go to any appointments that you have

What other things should I think about?

There was some further information included in the letter sent to you

You or a supporter should try to read all of the information but here are some important things

You should soon get a letter asking you and anybody you live with to get a flu vaccine

You should this get this so you can stay safe from the flu

If you do not get a letter in the next few weeks call 0800 22 44 88
